Amid a most attractive setting, in which tall vases of chrysanthemums were intermingled with palms and ferns to form the decorations, the annual guest day entertainment of the Daughters of the American Revolution was given yesterday in the home of Mrs. R. A. Fox, at 401 O street, southwest.

An exceptionally pleasing musical program was given as follows:

Song by Mrs. Frank Head, Faley Lullaby Bowl of Roses.

Piano number by Francis Jones, Gigue Batoune.

Violin Solo by Betty Brett, Mazurka.
